Edward Thorn is a national of the United States and Spain. He is an attorney admitted to the practice of law in the District of Columbia and is specialized in international arbitration.

Experience in Arbitration

Edward joined Armesto & Asociados in 2020 to work on a team with founding partner Juan Fernández-Armesto. Edward's work involves investment and international commercial arbitration proceedings, predominantly on cases involving states or state-owned entities. He has worked on cases administered by a number of arbitral institutions, including ICSID, ICC, PCA, LCIA, and MCA.

Before joining Armesto & Asociados, Edward worked as a research assistant and judicial fellow to Judge Charles N. Brower (20 Essex Street Chambers; Judge ad hoc of the International Court of Justice) in his practice as an international arbitrator based in Washington, D.C.
